

Board Members Needed

Are you an advocate for the creative spirit and maintaining cultural identity? Do you invest in organizations that support sustainable practices and respect the environment? Do you want to broaden connectivity and understanding of different cultures?

Just Creations is looking for individuals to serve on its Board of Directors to help oversee and guide the store in its mission of advocating for marginalized communities of artisans and farmers through promotion of Fair Trade and social justice.

Responsibilities include:

- Attendance at monthly board meetings
- Membership on one board committee and completion of committee's goals:
 - Community Engagement
 - Finance and Development
 - Promotion and Communication
- Attendance at various special events throughout the year
- Support the store through shopping and annual donation

These volunteers should be committed, reliable, articulate, flexible, and team-oriented. We welcome people with all types of skills and experience so our board has a wide variety of knowledge.

Please email info@justcreations.org or call 502-897-7319 for more information and dates for our information sessions.

Just Creations | justcreations.org
2722 Frankfort Ave | Louisville, KY 40206 | 502-897-7319